

Animals and the Maya in Southeast Mexico

E. N. Anderson and Felix Medina Tzuc

CONTENTS

ILLUSTRATIONS	vi
PREFACE	vii
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xiii
A NOTE ON LANGUAGE AND TRANSCRIPTION	xv
1 IN THE FIELD IN QUINTANA ROO	3
2 THE MAYA AND THE ANIMAL WORLD	25
3 BEEKEEPING	43
4 HUNTING	63
5 ANIMAL NAMES AND NOMENCLATURE	97
6 CONCLUSIONS	119
APPENDIX I.
The Animal Classification of the Maya of Chunchuhub and Area, Quintana Roo	127
APPENDIX II.
Birds Observed in Chunchuhub and Environs, E. N. Anderson	197
NOTES	223
REFERENCES	225
INDEX	241

ILLUSTRATIONS

All photos by E. N. Anderson except as otherwise noted in the individual photo captions.

1. Western Quintana Roo from the top of the thirty-meter-high pyramid at Altamirano ix
2. E. N. Anderson and Felix Medina Tzuc in a recently cut milpa, Chunchuhub 8
3. E. N. Anderson reading bird guide with Maya children 15
4. Tsiimin (horse) carrying maize from the field 23
5. Typical Chunchuhub garden, with gardener in traditional Maya dress 29
6. T'uul (rabbits) in nest 33
7. Ba'ats (spider monkey), Chetumal Zoo 41
8. Juuj (iguana), Puerto Morelos 64
9. Kitam (Felix Medina Tzuc's pet peccary), Bixa, in 1996 69
10. Chi'ik (coati), Tabasco 70
11. Uulum (turkeys) 76
12. K'aambuul (curassow), a tame bird in Chunchuhub 84
13. K'ee'ken (young hog), Presidente Juarez 113
14. Baby bach (chachalacas) being raised as pets 120
15. Sak aak or jicotea (slider turtle) 129